To retell the nativity story from the perspective of a shepherd with quotes from Luke's gospel

Late last night, we were all sat on the hill watching the sheep on the cold, dark night. Me and all of the other shepherds were really tired and almost falling asleep. Then all of a sudden, I saw a really bright light shimmering on us and I was really confused and curious what it was. I stood up and an angel appeared and all the other shepherds and I bowed to the angel. We were all terrified but then the angel said "Don't be afraid because I am bringing you some good news. It will be joy to all the people. Today your saviour was born in David's town. He is Christ the Lord. This is how you will know him: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a feeding box (Luke 2:1-2)." Then a very large amount of angels appeared out of heaven singing and praising God saying "Give glory to God in heaven and on earth let there be peace to people who please God." (Luke 2:1-21) When the angels went we all ran as quick as we could to Bethlehem to a stable where Jesus was lying. I was really shocked that Jesus the Lord was led in a stable he should've been in a castle. We all bowed to Jesus, Mary and Joseph because they were special and holy. Then we all told them what the angels said and how they told us to find them. I felt really blessed and special to have been sent to go and see Jesus first. We were all so amazed at the sight of Jesus Christ. Then we returned to the sheep praising God and thanking him for everything we just saw and heard. It was ^{exactly} ~~exactly~~ as the angels told us.
