START DATE:	ASAP

Are you a determined, committed and capable individual with the skills and enthusiasm to ignite a passion for learning within our students and encourage them to use their full potential? Would you love to help our vulnerable students succeed and make progress academically, socially and emotionally?

We are looking for motivated and enthusiastic individuals, who would love to be part of our journey at The Barlow and could be instrumental in making a difference to our student's education.

The Barlow RC High School is an excellent place to work! As a leading Catholic High School, we are determined to create an environment where children and adults alike can achieve their full potential. Our school motto is 'If you believe, you can achieve' and if this describes you read on.

You will be located in Didsbury, (often voted as one of the most popular places to live in Manchester) only a short walk from the vibrant shops, bars and restaurants of Didsbury village. You will also have access to excellent transport links to Manchester city centre and surrounding areas.

In this role, you will be working with students most of whom have Statements of Special Educational Need/Education Health Care Plan, or those who may be on the higher end of the SEND Support category across all subject areas and Key Stages. You would mainly be expected to work with students providing in class support. However, in liaison with class teachers you may also be asked to take students out of lessons to work with them in small groups or on a one to one basis and be responsible for completing individual student action plans and profiles.

You should:

- Have experience of working with children with Special Educational Needs
- Have good literacy and numeracy skills
- Be aware of current national educational policy

- Have an awareness of the Special Educational Needs Code of Practice
- Have an understanding of the importance of safeguarding children.

In addition, you must be willing to undertake emergency first aid training.

In return, we will offer you the opportunity to further your professional development in a supportive and friendly environment
