Responsorial Psalm Ps 106(107):23-26,28-32

R. O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

- 1 Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. R.
- 2 For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their souls melted away in their distress. R.
- 3 Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.
- 4 They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.

Let them thank the Lord for his love, for the wonders he does for men. R.

R: Lord, in your mercy.

A: Hear our prayer

or

R: Lord, hear us.

A: Lord, graciously hear us.]

The Prayer of the Faithful (Intercessions) may be omitted, so you may wish to use the time while the priest prepares the gifts at the altar to think of your prayers for the Church and the world, and for your own particular intentions for this Mass.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

All sit. The procession of gifts may take place, but the collection does not: your donations to Church may be made online, or placed safely in the boxes.

All stand when the priest says:

A: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

The priest says the Eucharistic Prayer, remembering the words of Jesus at the Last Supper. Bread and Wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus for us.

P: The mystery of faith.

A: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

or: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

or: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

The Eucharistic Prayer continues, as we pray for the Church and the World, and ask that this holy sacrifice may help us be an offering to God. The prayer concludes:

P: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, for ever and ever.

A: Amen. All stand

THE COMMUNION RITE

The Lord's Prayer

P: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

A: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

P: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

A: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

P: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

A: Amen.

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

A: And with your spirit.

P: (In these or similar words) Though we do not exchange a sign of peace, we pause for a moment to fill our minds and hearts with thoughts of peace for our families, our neighbours, our enemies and our friends.

Breaking of the Bread

A: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

All kneel

Invitation to Communion

P: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

A: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Exhortation (In these or similar words)

P: Though you receive this gift on your way out of Church for reasons of safety, it also reminds us that we bear Jesus into the world today: think now of where you will be taking the Lord Jesus today and in the days to come, of what you ask him to share with you, and where He may perhaps ask you to take him. Quietly we prepare to welcome him under our roof.

Communion Antiphon

Ps 144: 15

The eyes of all look to you, Lord, and you give them their food in due season.

Your hands, palms upwards, one of top of the other, should be extended as flatly as possible. The priest will offer the host and say "The Body of Christ:" the communicant replies "Amen."

After receiving communion, do not return to your place but immediately leave the Church.
