Contract type: Full Time/Part Time considered

Salary: MPS - UPS

Suitable for NQTs: Yes

Salary £23,720 to £39,406

We are seeking an enthusiastic Maths teacher to join our growing school. The post is for a September start. Both full time and part time applications are welcome.

Closing date for applications: 26th April 2019.

Interviews will take place the following week.

Earlier this academic year, a parent made the comment that St Antony's represents 'Urmston's best kept secret'. In line with this, over the last few years, we have made significant progress in all areas of school life. These improvements have come about due to a number of reasons. Perhaps chief among these, is the togetherness of all members of the school community. Currently we have 510 pupils on roll (rising to over 560 in September) and because of our small secondary size, pupils and staff are known by all and the working environment is one of support. If this is the type of school you would like to work in, then please read the Headteacher's letter, which forms part of the application pack. This letter details some of the key features of this lovely school. In addition, we are more than happy to discuss this post by telephone or in person, prior to interview. We look forward to hearing from you.

To apply please see the information letter from the Head, and visit the staff area of our website: <http://st-antony.com/staff/vacancies/>

Safeguarding

St Antony's Catholic College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). Successful applicants will be asked to complete and return a 'DBS Application Form' for which ID should be provided at interview stage. Candidates should be aware that all posts in school involve some degree of responsibility for safeguarding children, although the extent of that responsibility will vary according to the nature of the post. If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences, including disciplinary offences related to children or young persons (whether the disciplinary sanction is current or time expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and if so the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure. If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, that previous employer will be asked about those issues. Where neither your current nor previous employment has involved working with children, your current employer will still be asked about your suitability to work with children, although he/she may, where appropriate, answer 'not applicable' if your duties have not brought you into contact with children or young persons. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent', must be declared.
