Responsibilities of the Diocesan Bishop and the Diocesan Department for Education

Canon law (Church law) provides that each Diocesan bishop has strategic responsibility to commission sufficient school places to meet the needs of baptised Catholic children resident in his area. A Catholic school is one which is recognised as such by the Diocesan bishop. Canon 803 provides the definition of a Catholic school. Canon 803§1 provides that a school is Catholic if:

Scheme of Delegation – Appendix 1

- (a) It is controlled<sup>1</sup> by a Diocese or religious order; or
- (b) It is acknowledged in a written document as Catholic by the Diocesan bishop.

All Catholic schools are subject to the jurisdiction of the Diocesan bishop, even those that are not in Diocesan trusteeship. Canon 806§1 provides:

“The Diocesan Bishop has the right to watch over and inspect Catholic schools in his territory...and has the right to issue directives concerning the general inspection of Catholic schools...those who are in charge of Catholic schools are to ensure, under the supervision of the Local Ordinary<sup>2</sup>, that the formation given in them, including its academic standards, are at least as outstanding as that in other schools in the area”.

In respect of his schools, which includes academies, the bishop has the legal right to appoint (and remove) an overall majority of directors and governors, who are known as foundation directors and foundation governors. In addition to all the other legal responsibilities of the academy trust company (for academies) and the governing body (for voluntary aided schools), the law recognises that foundation directors/governors are appointed specifically to ensure:

- That the Catholic character of the school is preserved;
- That the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed; and
- That the religious education curriculum is in accordance with the bishop’s policy for his Diocese, based on the Bishops’ Conference Curriculum Directory.

The Diocesan bishop, acting through his Director of Education, is responsible for:

- The provision and future development of excellent Catholic education throughout the Diocese
- The oversight of high educational standards, progress and outcomes in all Diocesan schools
- The appointment, development and training of foundation directors and governors and their removal
- The inspection of religious life of schools and RE (section 48 inspections)
- The development of Catholic teachers and leaders (and all appointments should be made in accordance with Diocesan protocol)
- The oversight of school buildings/estate and capital projects

<sup>1</sup> The ‘control’ specified in canon 803 is normally established where the Diocese or religious order owns the school and appoints the governing body (or at least a majority of it).

<sup>2</sup> ‘Ordinary’ includes the Diocesan Bishop and those, such as Vicars General, Episcopal Vicars and Auxiliary Bishops, exercising Ordinary jurisdiction on his behalf as well as to describe the relevant Religious Superior in respect of religious order schools, and this also includes their respective representative officers.

Scheme of Delegation – Appendix 1

- Planning of school place provision
- Engaging with the Local Authority (LA), Regional Schools Commissioner (RSC) and Ofsted
- Maintaining links with the Catholic Education Service and the appropriate government departments

The CES model Scheme of Delegation, more particularly this table at Appendix I, is modelled on a ‘traditional’, average sized multi-academy trust structure. This means that the directors’ responsibilities are delegated by them to an executive team (when in place), a Local Governing Body (LGB) for each academy in the multi-academy trust and/or the headteacher or principal of each academy. Each ‘layer’ of the governance structure feeds into the layer above so that the board of directors is free to carry out its strategic functions and is not involved in the operational or day to day aspects of running the academies within the multi academy trust company.

It is also likely that whatever the structure for governance in a Catholic multi-academy trust company there will be Local/regional support networks established for the purpose of sharing good practice and ensuring that each layer of governance has a voice, where appropriate. This could be achieved in any number of ways, for example, a Headteacher group made up of all of the headteachers in the multi-academy trust company, a chairs group for chairs of multi-academy trust companies and a chairs group for chairs of Local governing bodies of academies in multi-academy trust companies. The work of these groups can be factored into the following table, as appropriate.

KEY:

ND: means non-delegable

Explanation of the layers of governance in a Diocese of Salford Multi-Academy Trust structure

Executive Team: (When created)

Principal/Headteacher:

- Responsible for day to day management of the Academy (or academies in an executive headship type arrangement)
- Responsible for performance management of staff excluding those staff whose performance is managed by the Directors, a committee of the Directors, the executive team (including the Lead Officer, if appropriate), the LGB or a committee thereof.

Scheme of Delegation – Appendix 1

Notes to assist in reading this table

Where no Executive Team exists those responsibilities or roles must be undertaken by the Directors or delegated to the Local governing Body (LGB)

It is envisaged that, where the executive team have been delegated responsibility by the board of directors, an appropriate member of the executive team will take the lead based on their qualifications, expertise, skills, experience and/or availability.

In all that the multi-academy trust company does, it should ensure that any Diocesan policy, procedure, protocol or guidance is reflected and followed, including by the academies within the multi-academy trust company.

In this table, the term ‘company’ shall mean the multi-academy trust company’.

In this table, the term ‘headteacher’ shall mean the principal or headteacher employed in the academy and reference to ‘headteachers’ shall mean each of the headteachers employed in each of the academies in the company.
